

IMPACT 2024

Determined, Like the Dandelion

One winter day many years ago, our founders (Sister Pat and Sister Faye) were worried about how to pay their first secretary's salary. They talked on the front porch of CEC, surrounded by snow-covered ground. Sister Pat turned her head and noticed a bright yellow dandelion blooming through the snow. As they marveled at the sight, their mailman arrived, handing them a check large enough to cover the secretary's salary. Since that day, the dandelion has been a symbol of good things to come at CEC. Our new logo reflects that history and culture.

As we look back at the progress of 2024, we remain strong in resilience, hope, and dedication to professional, affordable counseling services for people of all ages. Your support makes this possible. We are grateful, and our community is grateful.
